

August 2020

Volume V, Number 8

Note from the Editor

As we are all dealing with COVID-19 Fatigue, let's take the time to thank the Lord for the blessings that we do have and to pray for our country.

We are still cancelling events as we try to go by the State of Ohio guidelines, keeping the safety and health of our members utmost in our minds. The General Meeting in August is cancelled, as well as the Appreciation Party, the National Convention in September, and all Senior meetings until further notice. Please read Fr. Dan's message on page 4 for his perspective and inspiration on all of this. Keep the faith and hang in there, everyone! Treu Kolping!

Schützen King & Queen for Another Year

This time last year, we were announcing that the new Schützenfest King and Queen were Randall and Katrina Brunsmann. Due to the cancellation of Schützenfest this year, as well as the King's Ball and Queen's Party earlier this year, the Kolping Board decided to continue the Brunsmanns' reign through this year, ending with the crowning of a new King and Queen at the 2021 Schützenfest. We are hoping that King Randall and Queen Katrina can celebrate at the King's Ball next March. This has been an extraordinary year all around!

Congratulations to all our members celebrating birthdays in the month of August !

Note from the President

Due to the spike in COVID-19 cases as Governor DeWine said on July 22nd, the August 7th General Meeting has been cancelled. If there are any important updates that need to be communicated, we will send out an Email blast. We wish everyone the best, and please let us know if there is anything that we as Kolping members can do to help.

Ted Hoerstmann, President

Kidney Needed

KIDNEY NEEDED for my wife, Elaine Wilke – Anyone have an extra kidney just taking up space in your body when it could be used to save Elaine? Are you wondering why God gave you two kidneys when all you need is one?

As of mid-January, Elaine has been officially registered on the Kidney Transplant List. Elaine has been on dialysis since September of 2018, and a new kidney would be a game changer for her. If you or anyone you know would consider a lifesaving kidney donation for Elaine, please contact Jessica Ratcliff at The Christ Hospital for more information. Her number is: 513-585-1427.

Thanks, Ted Wilke

German Heritage Museum Update

In December of 2019, carpenters from Architectural Reclamation in Franklin, Ohio installed scaffolding all around the museum for the purpose of installing siding to protect the distressed logs. We selected LP Smartside, 7/16 x 8 inches, textured and pre-painted with a 30-year paint warranty.

Due to winter weather and Corona Virus issues, no actual work started until June 23. Work is going slow since the same company also has jobs at the Gorman Heritage Farm in Reading and the Turner Farm in Indian Hill. Until the restoration is completed, the museum is closed to visitors, but West Fork Park and the playground is open.

Deaths

Marcella Kohlmorgen, wife of the late Erwin Kohlmorgen and Kolping member for 33 years, passed away on July 20, 2020 at the age of 78. Many of you may remember Marcie working at many of the Kolping events and weddings, working in the coat check, setting up, etc., while Erwin worked the bar. We extend our sympathies to Marcella's children, Brenda and Erwin "Pete" Kohlmorgen. May her soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

Sports Club News

We are in a holding pattern to see if we will have a season. It was great to see everyone at the picnic. Hope all are staying safe and sound.

Schützen Club News

To all Shooting Club Members,

We will have a Captains meeting on August 21 at 18:00 in the shelter area and talk about what we can and cannot do, due to COVID-19. I am trying to find out from the Hamilton County Board of Health, how we should set up our shooting lanes. We should have enough room to social distance and as of today bring a mask.

At the Captains meeting, we need to talk about finances (good, not bad news). I would like to have all captains email me that your team is coming back for the 2020/2021 shooting season. I hope to see all the captains on August 21.

Respectfully,

Steve Lawson, President

Kolping Seniors

No Senior Meetings at this time. Take care of yourselves – you are in my prayers.

Note from Our Praeses

How has COVID-19 changed your life? A fellow publisher asked that question last month. He asked all of us attending an on-line meeting. I started making a list and then gave up because the list was getting too long. Nevertheless, I found the question helpful because it made me think. Just where is God in all of this? That is a tough question to answer.

On the one hand, as I looked at my list, I realized that most changes are on the external level. For example, I see less of my family members in person. In fact, a couple who are quarantined because they are in nursing care, cannot have visitors. At Franciscan Media these days, most of our staff are working from home and handling their responsibilities via the internet and Zoom meetings.

In our churches and chapels, there are less people than normal, even as public Mass schedules resume. I presume many folks have decided that it is too risky for them.

The same is true for our Kolping meetings. Nobody should be faulted for the decisions that they make to protect their own safety and that of others.

Please give thought to taking care of your own health and safety. For example, it is an act of charity to wear a face mask in stores and shops that are open because you are trying to care for the health and safety of others. Currently, with the resurgence of cases, governors and health professionals are ordering masks in public. Yet, there are some folks who just refuse to wear masks and say that it is their right and personal freedom to defy government orders.

Remember too, that the U.S. Bishops have given an exemption from attending Mass to all of us. Be safe and take care of yourself and others. That would be the Kolping spirit!

Fr. Dan

NOTICE

Upon the death of a MEMBER, please call the President of the Kolping Society or one of the Bereavement Committee members. In order that the membership can be aware that a member has died, the family of the decedent should be willing to place in the Death Notice that the decedent is a member of the Kolping Society and at what time Kolping members should assemble for prayers. (This should be mutually agreed upon by the family and the Kolping representatives.)

The members of the Bereavement Committee are:

Christa Olding, 513-385-1476
Marilee Uhlhorn, 513-661-0414
Helene Schrand, 513-741-9780

Also please say prayers for Kate Callahan, granddaughter of Mike and Manette Callahan and daughter of Ben Callahan, as well as all members of the Kolping family who are in need of prayers.

Please take time out of your busy schedule for these folks. Send a card or give them a call. It is always nice to hear from friends when you are not feeling well. Please pray for all members to be safe from the corona virus.

Kolping Golf League News

Unlike most activities at Kolping, the Golf League has not been cancelled and is going strong. At the midpoint of the season, a new Kolping member, Rich Balzer, is leading in the quest for the coveted Kolping Golf League trophy.

Something special occurs in August. Ben Albers and Carl Nissen started the league in April 1994. Carl was a mere child when the league began and will now celebrate his 90th birthday on August 21. Not only has Carl been fortunate enough to reach this age, but he is still a really good golfer. Oh, and by the way, Carl is not the oldest golfer. Bill Weber is 91 and he is also a really good player.

Anyone is welcome to join the league. We play at Beechcreek Golf Course on Hudepohl Lane off Hamilton Avenue near Kolping. One need not be a member of the Society to join. Contact Tom Musbach (513-793-1148) or Mike Pelzel (513-385-3120) for more information.

Kolping members who can be found chasing around a little white ball on Thursday mornings include: Henry Arents, Rich Balzer, Mike Callahan, Tony Dechering, Bob Geoppinger, Mike Hasenfratz, Gus Kramer, Jerry Meyer, Tom Musbach, Carl Nissen, Mike Pelzel, Marty Puffenberger, Fred Schmits, Harry Schwietering, Gunther Stark, and Irene Whalen. There are nine non-members who play regularly – Mark Dare, Ken Dietrich, Chuck Johns, Dieter Lubert, Bob Martin, Fred Sanders, Dave Stover, Tim Stover, Steve Templin and Bill Weber. Once in a while, we are even joined by Paul Anhofer. Everyone is welcome to have a little fun on Thursday morning. We can't let the pandemic take away all of life's pleasures!

So, Happy Birthday, Carl. We are glad that you and Ben started the league more than twenty-six years ago when you were both just kids!

Jim & Carolann Slouffman Retiring from Sangerchor

Jim and Carolann Slouffman, the founders of the Kolping Sangerchor, are retiring from their leadership roles in the Chor. Since they are now spending more time wintering in Florida, and would miss both the Weihnachts Konzert and the Spring Konzert, they thought it would be best, since they could not devote the time they have in the past. They will still serve in an advisory capacity.

We would like to thank Jim and Carolann for bringing back the wonderful sounds of German choral music to Cincinnati Kolping back in 1989, and for their dedication and hard work throughout the years. The Kolping Sangerchor will truly miss them.

Gruß Gott mit hellem Klang,
Heil deutschem Wort und Sang!

Kolping Genealogy

It might be a good time to schedule a look at Matricula over the days/weeks as we are home following our governor's and county health officials' guidelines. Just like your kids and grandkids, it is time for "home study". There are no live Kolping Genealogy sessions, but we will be reviewing Matricula on Sunday, August 16.

Matricula (data.matricula-online.eu). We have covered this site in a previous live session but it is so good, it needs another examination. Take some time accessing Roman Catholic records. Matricula is a nonprofit organization that made its mark by digitizing Catholic Church records from the old Austro-Hungarian Empire. Among records, you'll find Catholic registers from Münster and Paderborn, as well as the German Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. Unique to this site is the large collection of Roman Catholic Militärkirchenbücher, the "barracks parishes" of garrisoned soldiers who were often far from home.

Matricula has a language "flipper" that translates the home page into English, but some pages, the originals, are, of course, in German only. Prepare your research before this online meeting at 2:00 pm on August 16, and maybe another attendee can translate for you.

Dr. Tom Montgomery, Kolping member:
montgota@fuse.net, montgota@miamioh.edu, 513-969-5383.

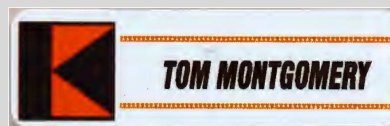

A GREAT BIG THANK YOU for all the cards, texts, emails, calls and prayers. I am making a little progress every day and looking forward to returning to our regular Kolping duties.

Kolping Name Badges

We all miss our Kolping meetings and events – always a time for cheer and happiness! Some of us will need to re-learn names after the lockdown is lifted. You may order custom name badges to wear at Kolping events. The cost for these is minimal and is coordinated by member Tom Montgomery, representing the Society. He will just need your first and last name, email, phone and funds. Tom can be reached at 513-969-5383 or montgota@fuse.net. You can send him a check (515 Vinnedge Ct., Fairfield, OH 45014) or just wait until the badges arrive and Kolping is re-opened to pay and pick up your name badge.

Front will be the same for all name badges as follows.

Please specify Magnet or Pins (two on the back) and exactly how you want your name to appear on the badge. We need to order ten at a time.

Back-Magnetic to fit any article of clothing, but beware, it is NOT for those with Pacemakers; $4.75 each.

Back – two pins can be used to fit to any soft article of clothing; $4.00 each.

The name badges can be picked up at any general meeting, event or mailed back to you (at an extra cost). They are $4.75 (magnetic) or $4.00 (pins) each, with cash or a check made payable to Tom Montgomery (not written to the Kolping Society), 515 Vinnedge Ct., Fairfield, OH 45014.

BIG BIG NEWS!!!

Schützenfest is moving to the 3rd Weekend in June (Father's Day Weekend)

Dear Fellow Kolping Members –

I am very excited to announce that the Kolping Board has approved the moving of Schützenfest, America's Oldest German Fest - Seit 1866, to the 3rd weekend in June, starting in 2021!!! Schützenfest 2021 will be held from June 18 - 20.

If I were to try and distill this decision down to a word, it would be WEATHER. It has been proven from personal experience and, moreover, by studying weather charts, that the 3rd weekend in July is historically the worst weekend of the year to host a festival in Cincinnati. The main reason for this is the oppressive humidity which builds up in July and hits a sustained peak around July 18. The combination of sustained humidity and high heat is a festival's arch enemy, as it either causes people not to come out or for festivalgoers to go home early. Furthermore, this combination almost always generates huge thunderstorms and unstable weather. Additionally, oppressive humidity and high heat is unsafe and very taxing on our volunteers before, during, and after the festival!

Weather is a huge factor in whether a festival is financially successful. To help highlight this fact, over the past 8 years of being directly involved in the leadership of Schützenfest and this year's Kolping Picnic, we experienced quality weather the entire weekend only one time (in 2016). When I compare that one good year's attendance to 2019's, I see that we had nearly double the number of people coming in 2016.

We are not naïve enough to think that we will be guaranteed great weather the 3rd weekend in June each year, especially here in Cincinnati. However, based on a detailed study of historical weather charts and discussions with meteorologists, the 3rd weekend in June gives us a greater probability for better weather. Ultimately, we are playing the odds.

One of the exciting aspects of the 3rd weekend in June is the ability to honor fathers on Father's Day on Sunday. We initially thought that celebrating Schützenfest over Father's Day weekend was a show stopper. However, the more we talked with members, traditional festivalgoers, and most importantly fathers, the clearer it was that being able to feature Father's Day at Schützenfest is a great advantage. Generally speaking, fathers want a fun place to go to celebrate their special day!

We will create special promotions and fun ways to feature fathers at Schützenfest! For example, on Sunday, fathers will get in free and be invited to take part in our traditional parades. One added bonus to hosting Schützenfest over Father's Day weekend is it will be easy for festivalgoers to remember each year! Our goal is to have Schützenfest as the 'go to' destination for fathers and families on Father's Day.

I want to emphasize that this decision was not made easily. Rather, we took a great amount of time, care, thought, analysis, and gathering of various people's and members' input and opinions before making this recommendation to the Kolping Board. We realize this change will be difficult for some. We also realize that it will be challenging to find volunteers on Sunday. At the same time, Kolping has been blessed recently with several new members that we have the opportunity to tap into for help and support.

Ultimately, we feel it is in Kolping's best financial interest to move Schützenfest to a weekend that traditionally has better weather. Schützenfest is Kolping's major fundraiser of the year and fundamental to our Society's financial stability.

We look forward to everyone's support of this difficult decision and we look forward to your continued support in the years ahead!

By the way, 2021 is a special year, as we will celebrate the 155th Anniversary of Cincinnati's 1st Schützenfest!!!

Treu Kolping,

- Jim Stukenborg
Schützenfest Chairperson

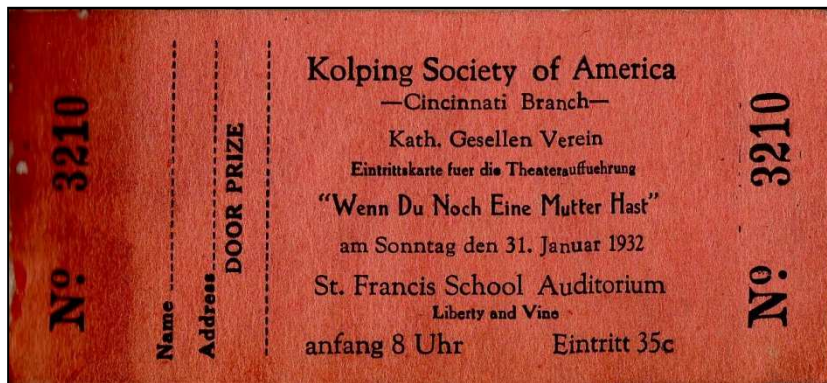

Kolping History Corner

The Kolping Drama Club

by Nancy Pelzel

Excerpts from "Making a Difference: A History of the Catholic Kolping Society of Cincinnati"

Many subgroups of the Cincinnati Kolping Society have come and gone over the years, one of which was the Kolping Drama Club, or Theater-Abteilung. This subgroup was established by Henry Fellerhoff, one of the founders of Cincinnati Kolping, on December 27, 1931, and already on January 31, 1932, the club put on a play in the St. Francis Auditorium called, "Wenn Du Noch Eine Mutter Hast" ("If You Still Have a Mother"). This performance, along with performances by the Kolping Choir and the Kolping Orchestra, drew close to 700 people. The play was a huge success.

*Admission Ticket to the play, "Wenn Du Noch Eine Mutter Hast".
Notice the admission price of 35¢.*

*Henry Fellerhoff,
founder of the Kolping
Drama Club*

On the heels of their successful debut, the members of the Kolping Drama Club then had to start rehearsals for their performance of the comical farce, "Robert and Bertram" at the Cincinnati Kolping Eighth Anniversary celebration in October of the same year. This again was met with rave reviews. A review written in the Cincinnati Freie Presse, a German language newspaper, stated, "It was by far the best amateur performance that Cincinnati had experienced in the last ten years."

The Kolping Drama Club performed again at the Kolping Christmas party in December of 1932, and then started rehearsals for their next play, "Die Tochter des Verbannten (The Daughter of the Exile)", which they performed in February of 1933 at St. Francis Hall. As before, a critic from the Cincinnati Freie Presse gave a glowing review, which in part stated, "In spite of the bad weather, the large hall of St. Francis School was filled nearly to capacity by a crowd who gave thunderous applause for the extensive program ... The evidence can be shown, without exaggeration, that the theater evening was one of the best that had been offered here to the German public in years."

The Kolping Drama Club remained active, at least until February of 1936, when they were still mentioned as a subgroup. Other plays that were mentioned were two one-act plays that were performed on November 12, 1933, under the direction of Reverend Dr. Robert Hammer, the Vice Praeses of Cincinnati Kolping, and an author in his own right. The two plays were titled, "Das schwarze Haar (The Black Hair)" and "Die Tante aus Krähwinkle (The Aunt from the Backwater)".

It seems that the Drama Club became inactive sometime after February of 1936, but then was revived again in time for the fifteenth anniversary celebration of Cincinnati Kolping on November 19, 1939, when they performed the one-act play, "Die beiden Brüder (Both Brothers)". The play was directed by Henry Fellerhoff.

No mention of the Drama Club was made after that, as its demise was most likely a result of the low profile the German immigrants had to keep during World War II. This subgroup of Cincinnati Kolping was yet another example of the many talents of its members and their contribution to the diverse cultural scene of Greater Cincinnati.
